

Good News Outreach

Jacquelyn C. Steele

Board Secretary

Jacquelyn C. Steele is a seasoned Human Resources executive and community advocate with over two decades of experience in HR leadership, compliance, and strategic workforce development. As the Chief Consultant of The HR Concierge, LLC, she provides tailored HR solutions to businesses and employees, ensuring equitable and effective workplace practices.

Jacquelyn has a strong background in public service, having served on numerous boards and committees focused on community engagement, family advocacy, and workforce development. She currently serves as Vice Chair of Whole Child Leon and has held leadership roles with organizations such as the Florida Commission on Human Relations, the Oasis Center for Women and Girls, and the Community Human Services Partnership.

Passionate about service and social impact, Jacquelyn brings her expertise in organizational strategy, governance, and program development to Good News Outreach. She is committed to supporting the organization's mission to serve the underserved and uplift communities through faith-driven outreach.

Beyond her professional and community work, Jacquelyn is a devoted wife to Rolland Steele, Jr. and a loving mother to their ten children. She values faith, family, and service, striving to instill these principles in her household while making a lasting impact in her community.