

Good News Outreach Board Member

Jason is a 2002 graduate of the Florida State University. He has worked as a systems and network administrator across both government and private sectors, since finishing college. He currently works as the Operations and Management Lead for the largest cloud offering within his company.

He attends St. Peter's Anglican Church, where he serves on the Men's Council and the Missions and Outreach committee. He lives in Tallahassee, with his wife (Michele) and their son.